

Speculator Lions Club

Mary Ann Ryan and Fred Miller Jr." Memorial Scholarship

Each year the Speculator Lions Club provides a scholarship to a deserving college bound student in honor of "Mary Ann Ryan and Fred Miller, Jr."

Ms. Ryan who was the first woman to join the Speculator Lion's Club and Mr. Miller was a lifetime member of the club.

All students who apply must be college bound and are judged in academic proficiency, potential, extra-curricular activity, need and in overall excellence throughout their high school years.

The committee also receive recommendations from the school's faculty and counselors.

All the information is presented to the Lion's Club Scholarship Committee, and they determine the award recipient.

The recipient of the award must:

- Successfully complete 1-semester at their respective institution and have a 2.0 grade average or better.
- Submit their college transcript indicating academic grades.

The financial award will then be presented at a special award dinner at a mutual suitable date in January.
